LEONAL T. READ FUNERAL SUNDAY

Funeral services for Leonal T. Read were held at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon in the Second ward meeting house, with Bishop Robert McQuarrie officiating. The meeting house was crowded with friends, relatives, former classmates and fellow missionaries.

OPEN UNTIL 9

The Central Business College will be open for registration and consultation to accommodate those who are employed during the day. Opposite Postoffice. Phone 764—Adv.

OWLS DEFEAT MAIL CLERKS

By the score of 10 to 5 the Owls defeated the Mail Clerks yesterday afternoon at Glenwood park. Payton pitched for the Owls and Butterfield caught, the battery in great part accounting for the success. Linal for the Owls was a star. With the assistance of Checketts he made four double plays and one triple.

NIGHT SCHOOL OFFERS OPPORTUNITIES

Thousands of people have improved their positions by attending night schools after their day's work was over. The opportunity awaits every one who is energetic and is willing to learn. Melabach's Business College at 2555 Adams avenue gives the student the best training that can be obtained in any night school anywhere.

THEATERS

AT THE OGDEN.
With the scenes laid in the Oklahoma cattle country, with ranch life admirably pictured, the western play, "The Little Tenderfoot," as presented at the Ogdien theater last night by the Arlington stock company, pleased a capacity house. For the production special scenery had been constructed and new drops had been painted, putting the production on a plane with the very best road show. Costumes used were new and picturesque.

"Little Casey," the talented child actress of the company, has a prominent part this week, and the part is well played.

Thomas Pawley played with his usual excellence, as did also Orville Spurrier and A. J. Cole, and John Miljan, who played two roles.

Miss Adele Bradford was given a great welcome last evening and will be one of the popular members of the cast.

Mayme Arington played the part of Julia Barstow and Robert Pawley was her cowboy lover.

"Mary Jane's Pa," the play in which Max Fisman played large Ogdien audiences, will be on at the Ogdien next week. "The Little Tenderfoot" will continue throughout the week.

OPEN LABOR DAY

The Central Business College will be open for registration Monday until 9 p. m. Registration is steadily going on. Work in day school will begin Tuesday morning. In night school Wednesday evening at 7:30.

DRAWING OPENS FOR PUBLIC LAND

Glasgow, Mont., Sept. 1.—At a minute past midnight today registration under the direction of Judge J. W. Witten of the interior department began for the drawing of lands in the Fort Peck Indian reservation in northwestern Montana embodying 1,345,000 acres of land. It will mark the last big land lottery in the United States. The Fort Peck reservation contains altogether more than 2,000,000 acres.

The drawing will be held at Glasgow beginning September 23. It is estimated that $0,000 land seekers will file applications.

GOLF TOURNAMENT OPENS TODAY

Garden City, N. Y., Sept. 1.—One hundred and twenty-four golfers tramped the Garden City club's links today in quest of the national amateur title. The qualifying round will reduce this field to 32, who will spend the rest of the week at match play for the championship.

Weather conditions could not have been better when the first pair, M. P. Lewis of the Flushing, L. I. Country club, and A. H. Smith of the Huntington Valley, Pa., club, teed off at 9:30 a. m.

Play was confined to the first half of the 36 hole qualifying round. The 64 leading scores today will entitle their makers to finish the round tomorrow, and the total scores for the 36 holes will decide the 32 players to start the match play.

Jerome D. Travers of Upper Montclair, N. J., the present holder of the national title, and Walter J. Travis, another three time national winner and erstwhile holder of the British amateur championship, the most prominent among this year's entries, include Findlay S. Douglas, Nassau, N. Y., R. A. Gardner of Chicago, E. M. Byers of Allegheny, Pa., and W. C. Fowkes, Jr., of Pittsburgh, Pa., four other former champions.

ATLANTIC COAST NEEDS DRY DOCKS

Washington, Sept. 1.—Lack of berthing slips and dry docks is pointed out as "the distinctly important weakness of our naval stations located north of Cape Hatteras," in a report today to Secretary Daniels by the naval board of inspection for shore stations.

Additional dry docks on the north Atlantic coast, in the opinion of the board, are essential for the needs of the Atlantic fleet and it suggests that Jamaica Island and Clarke Island at the Portsmouth navy yard should be acquired as the sites of two additional dry docks.

AUTO-POLO THE NEW THRILLER ISIS THEATRE

The newest daredevil game which has taken the public by storm is the novel subject of this film. There are four autos engaged in the game and these cars sweep about the field after the ball at a speed that is alarming. The malletmen seem regardless of their danger in their efforts to win, leaning perilously out of the car for a stroke while it turns on two wheels, stops, races backwards across the field at a speed that will make your hair stand on end even to watch.

MAKE CLINICS COMPULSORY

Washington, Sept. 1.—Attendance by naval officers at surgical clinics would be made compulsory by Surgeon General Stokes so that they would not become unversed in battle by sight of the injured. The head of the navy's medical force will address the naval war college on Wednesday on the subject in connection with a lecture on the psychology of naval warfare.

General Stokes would have the officers and men not only inured to the sight of blood and suffering but also trained in the use of first aid. In this way he believes the warships' surgeons would be enabled to attend promptly to the desperately wounded during an engagement, leaving the less seriously hurt for later treatment.

RECEIVED AT EMBASSY.

Berlin, Sept. 1.—Fifteen officers of the Washington "continentals," in their historic uniforms and under the command of Colonel Winter and accompanied by a deputation of the German Kriegsmarine of New York, were received at the American embassy this morning. They will attend the autumn parade of the guards army corps tomorrow.

SECURE VALUABLE PICTURE.

London, Sept. 1.—The Boston Museum of Fine Arts has purchased here "The Falls of the Rhine at Scutfeuse," one of J. W. Turner's earliest and finest paintings, according to an announcement in the Times today. For more than a century the picture has been one of the treasures of the De Tabley collection, having been purchased from the artist by Sir John Leycester. The price paid by the Boston museum has not been made known.

NOTICE OF INTENTION.

Notice is hereby given by the board of commissioners of Ogdien City, Utah, of the intention of said board to make the following described improvements, to-wit:

To create both sides of Chester street from Washington avenue east to Jefferson avenue; also both sides of Capitol avenue from Harrison to Van Buren avenues as a sidewalk district, and to construct thereon a concrete sidewalk five feet wide and four inches in thickness, with the necessary intersections together with the necessary grading therefor, and to defray the whole of the cost thereof, estimated at $2,100.00, by a local assessment upon the lots or pieces of ground lying and being within the following district, being the district to be benefited or affected by said improvements, to-wit:

All the land lying between the outer boundary lines of said street and avenue, and a line drawn 50 feet outward from and parallel to the said outer boundary lines.

All protests and objections to the carrying out of such intention must be presented in writing to the city recorder on or before the 4th day of September, 1913, at 10 o'clock a. m., that being the time set by said board of commissioners when they will hear and consider such objections as may be made thereto, at the mayor's office, at the City Hall, Ogdien City, Utah.

By order of the board of commissioners of Ogdien City, Utah:
Dated this 12th day of August, 1913.
H. J. CRAVEN,
City Engineer.

NOTICE TO HEATING AND PLUMBING CONTRACTORS

Sealed bids will be received by the Board of Trustees of the Utah Industrial school at Ogdien, Utah, for the heating, ventilating and plumbing of the Boys Home Building now in course of erection on the grounds of said industrial school up to 10 a. m., Monday, September 2, 1913.

Plans, specifications, lists of materials and instructions to bidders can be found at the Office of Dr. E. G. Gowans, Superintendent, also at the Office of Watkins & Birch, Felt Building, Salt Lake City, Utah.

Bids will be received in segregated form for all materials delivered to Ogdien, Ogdien; for labor of complete installation and also for material and installation according to said plans and specifications.

Each bid must be addressed to Dr. E. G. Gowans, Superintendent and marked on lower left hand corner of envelope the class of work bid upon and must be accompanied with a certified check of 5 per cent, the amount thereof as a guarantee that the accepted bidder will enter into contract and give an approved surety bond within one week after the said work is awarded otherwise all checks will be returned with rejected bids, also to the accepted bidder after complying with the aforesaid requirements.

The Board of Trustees will meet at their office on the aforesaid date and time and publicly open said bids. The Board of Trustees reserves the right to reject any and all bids or accept any part thereof.

By order of the Board of Trustees.
HENRY GARDNER, President.
ED. M. ROWE, Secretary.
Dated at Ogdien, August 20th, 1913.

The New Dresses

NOVELTIES in material rather than a radical change in style is the important feature of the Fall fashions in women's dresses. Never has there been a season when so many novelties have been shown or favored by the designers. The skirts are conservatively narrow, draperies are used in abundance, blouse effects are conspicuous features, and many trimming features, such as fancy collars and sashes, again are noticeable.

Fashion decrees the natural figure line again, so the soft clinging silks are favored in all instances and these will have a great vogue. Crepe de Chine, Crepe Meteor and soft poplins, both plain and fancy weaves, are among the popular materials. Brocades both in silk and wool materials are largely shown, as are matelasses. The new colors for Fall dresses are Russian Green, various shades of Blue, Brown on the Havana order, Old Rose and a Deep Red similar to Prune color.

The tailored dresses show many novelty effects in materials of both plain and fancy weaves. Boucle, Crepe cloth, Eponge, Bedford Cords and Serges are extensively shown. Mosh of the new dresses are made with draperies or a suggestion of it, while others are plain with a slash in the side or front.

Sleeves are made in full length designs and both the set-in and drop-shouldered sleeves are favored. Some of the sleeves made with the drop-shoulder have the lower portion of satin in like or contrasting color. Fancy collars are used extensively and in many models are made of trimmings showing Oriental designs and colors.

Touches of Oriental colors in piping, embroideries and buttons are often enlisted to give an effective touch of color. Imitations of fur are used for collars, cuffs and buttons. Many of the dresses are made with high standing collars of imitation fur, while others have small rounded or sailor collars of fur.

The Balkan idea in blouses is one of the popular features of Misses' dresses. Sometimes the skirts are made of plaid and the blouse of red, blue or white with a tie of the plaid.

BURTS' have a very comprehensive showing of all the new dress styles and will welcome all who care to call and see them.

INJURED JUROR IS IMPROVING

San Francisco, Cal., Sept. 1.—Continued improvement was shown today by Juror William H. Adams, who was injured Saturday in an automobile accident, and hope was expressed that he would be well enough tomorrow to permit the trial of F. Drew Caminetti for alleged violation of the Mann white slave act to proceed. Adams said he would be on hand if he could manage to hobble into court.

Attorney Theodore Roche, special prosecutor in the case, returned last night from Sacramento, whither he went in search of evidence to be used in rebuttal in the event, he said, the defense introduced certain testimony.

"WITCH STICK" FINDS WATER

Kansas City, Mo., Sept. 1.—Disappointed after five years of effort to persuade the water department of Kansas City, Kan., to extend the water mains to his neighborhood, Harry Snedeker resorted to the "witch stick" and found a rushing stream of clear cold water beneath his backyard.

A few days ago Snedeker cut a forked branch from a peach tree. At the spot toward which the fork turned as he held it in his hand while walking in the yard he ordered well diggers to begin operations. Today when a thick stratum of rock was blasted at a depth of 25 feet a stream of water five feet deep and two feet wide was uncovered.

If women's skirts nowadays only were rolled around the bottoms one might get the idea, understand, that instead of cutting down father's pants to fit Johnnie, mother had tried her hand at making two garments exist where but one was before.—Kansas City Illuminator.
